Thank you all again for our discussion.

Attached are a draft status report on the review process - (b) (5) DPP [REDACTED] - and a draft economic report on Bears Ears. The status report reflects comments from the review team mentioned in it; sent it to Brian and Sam also, but don't believe they had time to look at it. The economic report is still undergoing revision, so the attachment is the original version. I will send the revised version tomorrow. I am hopeful we will not need to release either document in the near future, and should know something on that tomorrow also.
